Opposed to a Strike.
Columbus, O., May 31.—The Ohio Miners' convention which met to-day was plainly against any strike in any district. The one desire seemed to be to get back to work upon as favorable terms as possible, so as to make the settlement a local instead of a general issue. The meeting this morning was devoted to the discussion of the Ohio situation, and to considering the miners' side as it was presented between a committee of the miners and one of the operators. It is certain that work will be resumed on Monday in all mines of the state.

THE LATE TIMOTHY DWIGHT.
Timothy Dwight, whose funeral occurred here on Wednesday, was formerly a prominent business man of New Haven. His last years were spent in Canada. He was born in 1811, and was a grandson of the first President Dwight. His residence was a large white house with high pilasters ornamenting the front, which stood on the site where the late Mayor Fitch's residence was afterwards erected. Mr. Dwight was interested with his brother, the late John Dwight, in the New Haven Copper company, and also in real estate operations in this city. He built the house on Prospect street now owned by Mrs. Straighton, and which was one of the first residences erected on Prospect Hill.

DEATH OF MR. I. C. HULL.
A Prominent Mason Passes Into the Great Beyond—Was Born in New Haven.
The Bloomington, Ill., Daily Pantagraph of May 27 says: Yesterday evening, at 6:45, at his home, at No. 505 East Locust street, occurred the death of Mr. Isaac Chauncey Hull. He had been ill for nine weeks with dropsy, which disease was the cause of his death. He had lived in this city for the past thirty years, and for twenty-three years had been employed in the shops of the Chicago and Alton here. During all that time he had had charge of the steam hammer. He left here a year ago, and since then had done no work. He was born in New Haven, Conn., October 31, 1832. Besides his wife he leaves one son, Isaac Chauncey Hull, Jr., who lives in Leavenworth, Kan. The son and wife will arrive here to-day, when the funeral arrangements will be decided upon. Mr. Hull was a prominent Mason, and for sixteen years had been Tyler of his lodge, No. 49, as well as the other six Masonic organizations of the city. He was a Royal Arch Mason and also a Knight Templar. He was very well known, especially among Masons, and was a man of the strictest integrity. He was a member of St. Matthews' Episcopal church. His death will be mourned by a large number.

FUNERAL OF MR. I. C. HULL.
Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late home of the deceased, No. 505 East Locust street, were held brief services over the body of Mr. Isaac C. Hull. From there the procession went to St. Matthews' Episcopal church, where the service of that church was said by Rev. Mr. Steele of Normal. At the grave Rev. H. O. Hoffman read the Masonic ritual. The Knights Templar acted as escorts. The following were the pallbearers: Messrs. W. J. Baldrige and W. E. Gagen from Bloomington lodge No. 43, Joseph Hughes and William Hill of Wade Barney lodge, No. 512, and Joseph Wetzel and Wolf Griesheim of Mozart lodge, No. 656.

At the Funeral of Jeremiah Spillane.
The funeral of Jeremiah Spillane, whose death occurred suddenly at Winchester's on Wednesday, was very largely attended at St. Mary's church yesterday morning. Among the many sympathizers were his shopmates, Rev. Father Lilly was celebrant of the mass, Rev. Father Fowler deacon, and Rev. Father Murray sub-deacon. Schmidt's mass was sung by a quartet composed of Messrs. Lautenbach and John Reilly and Miss Sullivan and Miss Lynch. Miss Lynch sang the "Ave Maria" with much expression. Professor Rice was organist. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, including a broken column, surmounted by a dove, inscribed "Son," an exquisite shield from his shopmates, a scroll inscribed "True Friend," also a pillow, "Gates Ajar," and a cross. The flower bearers were Robert Callahan, George Carr, Thomas McCue and Patrick Moore, Jr. The bearers were James Kelly, Edward Moriarty, W. B. Dunn, Paul Kehoe, Ed Fallon and Terrence Smith.
